Returns, refunds and claim handling

Maple Basket

Maple Basket is a fictional Aqaba supermarket. Its internal customer-service policy below is effective 15 October 2026. This is test material, not a statement of applicable consumer law. A receipt or verifiable order number is required for every claim.

Reference item	Recorded value
Unopened non-perishable returns	10 calendar days
Chilled/fresh change-of-mind returns	Not accepted
Damaged or incorrect item report	Within 36 hours
Approved card-refund processing	3-5 business days
Supervisor approval threshold	Refunds above 40 JOD
Customer-service manager	Rami Khalil

Rules and interpretation

Non-perishable returns must retain their original packaging and be fit for resale. Damaged or incorrect goods may qualify for replacement or refund after review. A request submitted within the reporting window is not automatically approved. Card refunds are returned to the original card; cash refunds require the original cash-sale record.

Worked example / decision note

An unopened detergent purchased eight days ago is within the return window when the receipt is available. A fresh strawberry purchase cannot be returned merely because the customer changed their mind. A 45 JOD approved refund requires supervisor authorization before processing.
